FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Woodrow (Woody) Wilson, Jr. promoted to Senior Director of Capital Programming of the Jackson Municipal Airport Authority, October 1, 2008.

The Jackson Municipal Airport Authority is pleased to announce Mr. Woodrow (Woody) Wilson, Jr. has been promoted within the Airport Authority's Senior Management Team to the position of senior director of Capital Programming effective October 1, 2008.

In his new position Mr. Wilson and his staff will be responsible for the planning, direction, implementation, oversight and facilitation of the Airport Authority's long and short term capital projects. Dirk B. Vanderleest, JMAA's chief executive officer made the promotion decision and offered "JMAA invests millions of dollars annually in our capital development, and I am very pleased to entrust Mr. Wilson with the task of managing those projects on our behalf. He has a wealth of experience in construction management, and a long history of aviation operations and development to rely on in carrying out our mission."

Mr. Wilson has been with the Airport Authority since 1999, most recently as the director of facilities. He is a graduate of Troy State University with a Master's of Science Degree in Public Administration, and served in the United States Air Force as a pilot, base commander, and fulfilled other leadership roles for 28 years, retiring at the rank of Colonel.
